FROM THE COUNCIL

Rev. Bruinsma is Eastern Home Missionary for our denomination and labors in Pittsburgh, PA where there is a Protestant Reformed Fellowship and the surrounding areas. We welcome him and his wife to our fellowship.

The church order article 22 which speaks to the election of office bearers in the church says this, "...every church shall be at liberty according to its circumstances to give the members an opportunity to direct attention to suitable persons" for the offices. The council wishes to inform the congregation that they will be making nominations for the offices at their September meeting. If anyone wishes to direct the council's attention to men whom they believe are suitable for the office please do so by speaking personally with an elder or deacon.

The consistory will meet Tuesday August 12 at 7pm.

Catechism classes will begin August 26 and 27. Catechism books will be available in the classroom after the morning service on August 17.

The Genesis Protestant Reformed School of Lacombe is seeking financial support toward the goal of building a school building in the spring of 2015. Anyone who is interested in supporting this cause can find an informational letter in the back of church.
