It's big, and it's coming to our area this spring – "History and Principles of Reformed

Education (HPRE)!" HPRE is a course sponsored by the Federation of Protestant Reformed Schools, of which our local Protestant Reformed schools are members. HPRE has been taught in western Michigan several times, and now, for the first time, will be offered locally. The class will be held from May 26 to June 5, mainly in the evenings at Trinity Christian High School. The class is of benefit to more than just teachers. College students, parents, school board members, grandparents, and all who have an interest in the history, governance, worldview, and many more topics about our schools will be enriched. Watch for details!
