FROM THE COUNCIL

Rev. Eriks is in the area for Synod and a vacation and he has offered to preach for us this morning. We welcome him and his family to our midst.

The Council has set a special congregational meeting for June 22, 2016 at 7PM. The purpose of this meeting is to consider two building related proposals.

We are privileged to witness the sacrament of baptism as it is administered to Jude Marvin, infant son of Chase and Beth De Groot, June 26 during the evening service.

From the deacons: We are looking for some members of the congregation to help prepare the rental home for the Holsteges. On Saturday, June 25 we will need help moving furniture in, setting up the home, cleaning, etc. In addition, we'd like to have some freezer meals ready for the family to use as they settle in. If you are willing to help please sign up on the sheet on the octagon table. Thank you!

The FMC will meet Thursday June 30 at 7pm.

From the Consistory: Due to the Lord continuing to bless our congregation with covenant seed, it has come to the attention of the Consistory that additional room is needed for families with young children. The Consistory asks that the back 5 rows on both sides of the sanctuary be reserved for families with young children. Thank you."

OUR CHURCH FAMILY

Thomas Andringa was able to return home this past Wednesday. We give thanks to God for this progress and pray Thomas' healing continues in accord with the Lord's Will.

Gloria Van Bommel had a CT scan this past Monday. Results showed no cancer growth and the lymph node stayed the same size. However they can't determine if it is dead cells or alive so she will have a pet scan in the next few weeks. If it is active the doctors talk about doing radiation. She completed her last round of chemo this past week. We give thanks to God for this progress and pray for Alan & Gloria as they continue the journey set before them.

Quote of Contemplation--

I turn to the teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ when He was upon earth. I cannot discover that our Savior ever let a word fall in discredit of any one of the Ten Commandments. I find Him speaking eleven times on the subject of the Sabbath, but it is always to correct the superstitious additions that the Pharisees had made to the Law of Moses about observing it and never to deny the holiness of the day. He no more abolishes the Sabbath than a man destroys a house when he cleans off the moss or weeds from its roof. Above all, I find our Savior taking for granted the continuance of the Sabbath when He foretells the destruction of Jerusalem. 'Pray ye,' He says to the disciples, 'that your flight be not in winter, neither on the sabbath day' (Mat 24:20). I am utterly unable to believe, when I see all this, that our Lord did not mean the Fourth Commandment to be as binding on Christians as the other nine ---- JC Ryle. Essay-- "The Sabbath"
