OUR CHURCH FAMILY

Hazel Andringa is asked to contact Kaleb Van Maanen (kvmaanen@yahoo.com) this week.

"Thank you for all the love, prayers, meals and gifts so graciously given during my recovery. This accident was very eye-opening to see how truly blessed we are to be surrounded by such amazing Christian friends and church family. My MRIs showed that I have a torn MCL, meniscus and labrum. But I am fortunate enough that I do not need any surgery and have been able to walk without crutches now in short distances.

We are reminded that the Lord our God will supply us with everything we need and to be thankful in everything. In the good and the bad. We are so truly thankful and blessed that I am able to walk and that this accident wasn't more serious."

"In everything give thanks for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you." 1 Thessalonians 5:18

"But my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:19

-Justin & Courtney Vander Veen

DENOMINATIONAL NEWS

Byron Center PRC has formed a new trio for minister-on-loan to Provident PRC in the Philippines consisting of Rev. M. De Boer (Edgerton PRC), Rev. J. Marcus (Peace PRC), and Rev. C. Spronk (Faith PRC). They plan to call from this trio next Sunday.

News from the Contact Committee: Rev. Steven Key and his wife Nancy will be in Australia for the months of January through March, so that Rev. can preach in the vacant Launceston congregation of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church of Australia. In late January, Rev. Wilbur Bruinsma and his wife will travel to the Philippines to supply the pulpit of the Provident PRCP. Both the EPCA and the PRCP have one active pastor, two congregations, and unique circumstances that add to their need for help. And Rev. Joshua Engelsma and Sid Miedema are the CC's delegation to visit the Covenant PRC in Northern Ireland; they will be in Northern Ireland for the Sundays of January 11 and 18. The schedule calls for Rev. Engelsma to preach four times and lecture once, as well as for the delegation to conduct church visitation with the CPRCNI consistory. Let us remember these brothers in our prayers, praying for traveling mercies, for God's blessing on their work, for God's blessing on the churches among whom they labor, and for closer union with and greater appreciation for God's saints in other countries.
