FROM THE COUNCIL

We welcome Rev. Bruinsma and his wife Mary to Calvary as Rev. Bruinsma preaches for us this morning and for the next two Sundays. We appreciate their willingness to be in our midst and we pray that they will be blessed in their time at Calvary.

We are privileged to witness the baptisms of Barrett Lee, son of Nathan and Amber Van Maanen, and of Piper Ann, daughter of Brent and Stephanie Zandstra this morning. We pray that God will bless the administration of the sacrament for the strengthening of our faith. Refreshments will be served from the kitchen windows following the service.

Rev. Kleyn will lead us in worship for today's evening service. The consistory agreed to a pulpit exchange with Doon to aid Rev. Kleyn who recently returned from his trip to the Philippines.

The deacons have added a collection this evening for Trinity CHS. This is to replace the collection that was originally scheduled for March 15, the church service cancelled due to the weather.

The public confessions of faith of Jaelyn Van Maanen and Drew De Vries are scheduled for next Sunday, May 3 during the morning worship service.

At his request, the membership papers of Matt Boonstra have been sent to his home.

The consistory has completed our family visits for 2026. We are thankful for the unity and peace that is evident in Calvary. We pray that God will use the completed visits for the good of His church and that we may put our trust only in the God that keeps us through the ups and downs of our lives here on earth.
