FROM THE COUNCIL

We welcome Rev. Regnerus to our pulpit and fellowship today. We appreciate his willingness to lead us in worship. Next Sunday, June 7 we will have an elder-led video service in the morning and a 2:00 PM service led by Rev. De Boer.

This morning we are privileged to witness the sacrament of baptism as it is administered to Emery Jo Van Maanen, daughter of Daniel and Hayley Van Maanen, and to Austin James Westra, son of Brett and Britney Westra. We are thankful for the visible sign of God's covenant shown to our church family. Refreshments will be served following the service.

The Council presents to the congregation a trio of Rev. Jacob Maatman (Southeast PRC, Wyoming MI), Rev. Daniel Holstege (Wingham PRC, Ontario Canada), and Rev. Justin Smidstra (First PRC, Holland MI) to be our next pastor. Our congregational meeting will be held tonight after the evening service.

The Council wishes to remind the congregation that we have a collection scheduled for our Young People's Society tonight. This collection will be taken to help defray the cost of convention registration fees and related travel expenses. Due to the large number of Young People from Calvary planning to attend this year's convention, the Young People's Society is in need of additional funds compared to previous years. Please prayerfully consider this need and opportunity to help support our Young People here at Calvary. Thank you!

As work has begun on the parking lot expansion to the east of the church building, parents are asked to keep a close eye on their children and to keep them out of the construction area after services. Thank you!

The consistory will meet this Monday, June 1, at 7:00 PM.

The deacons will meet next Monday, June 8, at 6:30 PM. The council meeting will follow at 7:30 PM.

QUOTES FOR CONTEMPLATION

During the season that societies are meeting we systematically study and discuss the Word of God. In this way we commune with God's Word on a regular basis. But at this time of year societies and catechisms discontinue meeting, and I am afraid that more often than not this means that we retire our personal Bible for the months of vacation. We ought to know that the Devil and the world gives us no reprieve during these months. In fact, one could make a case for the fact that the carnal temptations of the flesh are stepped up and increased for the child of God. The tendency is for our spiritual life to become relaxed and drowsy. It is good for us to be aware of this and attempt to combat it.

How shall we do this? When the leisure months of summer give time for everything we must also let it give time for being alone with the Scriptures. We might enjoy the systematic reading through the Psalms or the practical wisdom of the preacher. Oftentimes we do not understand what we read. It helps to reflect with a good concordance Bible, seeing what meanings various words in Scripture have. Maybe meditation upon a passage, with the aid of a good commentary to deepen and enrich our thoughts, is of benefit. There is a wealth of reading material that we ourselves publish in addition to the Standard Bearer and Beacon Lights. These meditations have chapters that are ideal short intervals of study early in the morning or before bedtime at night. The important thing is simply to make time in the business of our schedule for communion and fellowship with our God. We must seek the instruction of His Word and precepts that they may shed light upon our path and guide our feet. Then we shall walk in His fear!
