How did the world originate? Did God create all things in six 24-hour days, or did He oversee an evolutionary process that took billions of years? Does it matter what we and our children believe? Come to Edgerton PRC on Friday, August 21 at 7 PM to hear Pastor Matt De Boer answer these questions using the Word of God.

QUOTES FOR CONTEMPLATION

In the fellowship of the covenant, God gives himself to the member of Israel, to the one who is clean of heart, so that God is with his covenant friend and the covenant friend is with God. God gives himself to his friend as the only good. In this communion, God’s covenant friend knows and desires God as the only good. Living with God as the only good climaxes in heaven.

For this reason, heaven is desirable to the psalmist. Heaven is not desirable because of its bliss and glory. Heaven is not even desirable because it is deliverance from the pains of hell. But heaven is desirable because there God is and there we have God. Without the presence of God, heaven is of no interest to the child of God. As that which makes a house a delightful home to a child is the presence of good, beloved parents, so that which makes heaven delightful is being with God.

-Engelsma, D. Prosperous Wicked and Plagued Saints
